

CUBA'S FIGHT

For Liberty Evidently Continues to Gain Ground.

SPAIN TO SEND REINFORCEMENTS

And, if Necessary, Will Increase the Force to 200,000 Men.

MILITARY ORGANIZATION FAULTY.

Troops Wandering Aimlessly About

The Spanish Government Realizing that the Rebellion is a Matter of Some Proportions--An Chicago Minister Creates a Sensation by Declaring that the Time Has Come for the United States to Take a Hand.

London, Sept. 22.--The Havana correspondent of the Times telegraphs that paper as follows, under date of September 18:

"Under the heading 'Abogados del Diable' the Conservative newspaper, the Union Constitucional, publishes another bitter article taunting other leading newspapers because they refuse to recommend a policy of greater severity towards the insurgents, preferring to advocate liberal reforms in the Spanish method of administration.

"It is officially reported that a skirmish occurred near Guantanamo on Monday, in which the Spaniards defeated the insurgents from a strong position, killing eight of them. The Spanish loss is reported as three wounded.

"The insurgents in the province of Santa Clara say the object of destroying villages and settlements is to prevent the troops from obtaining shelter.

"Private letters received from Santa Clara state that the military organization is extremely faulty. General Campos' not having properly seconded the troops, which moved aimlessly from point to point with practically no intelligence department and no definite plan of campaign.

"Lengthy telegrams from Madrid, published yesterday state positively that Spain will send further 25,000 men in October, and an equal number in January and, if necessary, they are prepared to increase the army in Cuba to 200,000. Campos is right in saying that he does not want more men. What clearly is necessary is that the soldiers have more training and the army more method of organization, and above all, more competent direction is needed if a satisfactory result is wished.

"A train guard, composed of a corporal and twelve men, last Wednesday were attacked near San Miguel, province of Puerto Principe, by a group of eighty insurgents, resulting in five soldiers being killed and the corporal and seven others being made prisoners. "General Campos is reported at Manzanillo and proceeding towards Santiago."

TIME TO ACT.

A Chicago Minister Advocates Interference by the United States in Behalf of Cuba.

Chicago, Sept. 22.--The Rev. Dr. H. W. Thomas, caused somewhat of a sensation this morning by declaring from his pulpit that the time has come for America to say that the oppression of Cuba by Spain must come to an end. There was a large attendance of the best people in the city and the speaker was frequently interrupted by outbursts of applause. Dr. Thomas said in part:

"Among the modern nations of the earth Spain is old. She was once in the foreground, one of the greatest and proudest and most prosperous of nations. But she was always on the side of royalty and ecclesiastical. She belonged to the old order of government and religion. Other countries have advanced, have heard the call and caught the inspiration of a new light, while Spain has stood still, has gone backward. She has not absorbed other people of the earth and caught inspiration from them. Her religion is Roman Catholic and it is supported by the state. No fault can be found with that. She has a right to her religion, which is one of the great wings or powers of the church. The Protestant religion is tolerated, but worship must be in secret and no notice of meetings be given. There are 60,000 Protestants in the country and an attendance at worship of 8,000 in a population of a little less than 16,000,000. There are 5,000,000 men and 7,800,000 women that cannot read and write. Education flourishes in England, Germany, France and Italy, and I, therefore, argue that Spain--this moribund nation that has failed to get into line with the practice of this great age--has forfeited the right to be a dictator, much less a ruler among the nations of the earth.

It has the right to exist in ignorance and superstition and to manage its own affairs, but not the right to cruelly oppress its own subjects. "The time has come for America to say this oppression of Cuba must come to an end, and that very soon."

MR. BOWEN'S CASE.

He Will Ask the Government to Demand Indemnity from Spain.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.--John Sowers, an American sugar planter at Sagua, Cuba, who was imprisoned by Gen. Campos and subsequently ordered to summarily leave Cuba, passed through Washington last night on his way to his old home at Warrenton, Va. He will return to Washington in a few days to present his case to the state department. Sowers claims that he was in no wise identified with the insurgents, but was nevertheless imprisoned by Campos' orders for ten days and subjected to many indignities. When released, he was forced to leave Cuba on twenty-four hours' notice. The brief time allowed did not give him an opportunity to arrange for the departure of his wife and children, who are still in Cuba. Mr. Sowers will ask the state department to demand a heavy indemnity from Spain for interfering with the rights of a law-abiding and inoffensive American citizen. Mr. Sowers says he believes the Cubans will be successful in achieving their independence. "They are fighting," said he, "not so much against the Spanish as to 'throw off the yoke of a government which they regard as oppressive and detrimental to their interests."

Cuban Residents in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, Sept. 22.--International susceptibilities are being ruffled these days. Some Mexicans and Cubans hired a coach, put a hand-organ by the side of the driver and went about crying "Viva Cuba Libre," and "Death to Spaniards," creating disturbances.

Corros Espana, the organ of the resident Spanish colony, asks the government to prevent any further insults to Spain, and intimates that demonstrations on the part of the populace against Spain might end in a rupture of the present cordial relations of the two countries.

A Frenchman hearing the report that Bismarck was dead, which had been current here, drank toasts in which he insulted the German residents and was roughly handled by the Germans.

Small Battle in Cuba.

HAVANA, Sept. 22.--Official advices received here say that a column of troops near Santa Domingo fought a band of insurgents, inflicting a loss of five killed, twelve wounded and four prisoners taken. The troops also took six saddle horses and a number of arms.

HOT WAVE OVER.

Cold and Rain Bring Relief to Suffering Westerners.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.--Relief from the sweltering weather of the past week reached this city to-night shortly after 8 o'clock, when a cold wave, accompanied by a driving chilling rain, which sent pedestrians hurrying for their homes, arrived. At midnight the thermometer stood at 58, having dropped from 86 at 7 p. m., and the indications are that it will continue to drop until morning. At 7 o'clock there was no indication of the change which came an hour later.

The past seven days broke all records for heat for September in this city and throughout the northwest. There were ten deaths from the heat and numerous prostrations.

Dispatches to the Associated Press from many points in Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin, report a drop in the temperature to nearly the same figures. Telegraphic communication with the northwest was seriously crippled by the storm and at a late hour to-night the wires are still in a bad condition.

Storm at Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 22.--A terrific storm swept over the city to-night, the wind reaching a velocity of fifty miles an hour. A number of trees and small sheds were blown down, but no serious damage was done. In the state number of fatal accidents are reported and others will probably be heard from to-morrow. Many telegraph wires are down.

A Record Breaker.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.--The official thermometer of the weather bureau today recorded the highest temperature ever taken by the department on September 22 in this city. At 4 o'clock the thermometer registered 90 degrees. The mean temperature of the day was 88 degrees, which is 22 degrees above the normal September 22. The humidity was low, however, there being only 49 per cent. of moisture in the atmosphere.

The Cold Wave Coming.

MARSHALLTOWN, Ia., Sept. 22.--The protracted siege of intense hot weather was suddenly broken this afternoon by rain and a cold wave, the temperature falling nearly forty degrees in two hours. A severe frost is likely to follow if the weather clears and the wind subsides.

CHURCH DEDICATED.

Francis Xavier's Church Consecrated in Allegheny City.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 22.--With the solemn and impressive ceremonies of a pontifical high mass, Francis Xavier's Roman Catholic on California avenue, Allegheny, was dedicated to-day. Among the prominent clergymen present were Bishops McGovern, of Harrisburg; Watterson, of Columbus, and Phelan, of Pittsburgh. Bishop McGovern rendered the pontifical service while Bishop Phelan officiated as the dedicatory of the church, and Bishop Watterson delivered the dedicatory address.

The sermon of Bishop Watterson paid a glowing tribute to Father Ward and the congregation for the energetic work shown in erecting the fine structure.

The Francis Xavier church as it now stands completed is a marvel of beauty and cost about $10,000.

MIDDLEPORT, O., Sept. 22.--The society of the army of West Virginia holds its annual reunion here September 25, 26 and 27. General W. B. Powell, president, and department commander of Illinois, will be present with his staff, and Governor McKinley and staff; Gen. W. E. Williams, James L. Campbell and J. B. Foraker and others have been invited. Col. W. Tingle and his quartette will be present also.

CAR OF WHISKY EXPLODES.

A Serious Accident on the Big Four Road Near Peoria.

PEORIA, ILL., Sept. 22.--The Big Four whisky train to the east met with a serious accident last night. When east of Leroy, a car of spirits coupled behind the caboose was discovered to be on fire and a fast run was made to the next water tank, where Conductor Joe Murphy and brakemen John Muldoon made an effort to extinguish the flames. Suddenly there was a terrific explosion and the car was blown to atoms, it being impossible afterward to find a stick of timber six inches long. The men were hurled some distance from the wreck, both being badly burned. Muldoon was the most injured and there is small hope of his recovery. Murphy's case is also critical. They were taken to Indianapolis and placed in the hospital there.

MOWBRAY CALLED DOWN.

The English Anarchist Stopped in the Middle of a Speech by the Chicago Police.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.--Charles Wilfred Mowbray, the English anarchist, who came to this city for the purpose of teaching his doctrine of red flag and no government, was stopped in the middle of a speech this afternoon at Belmont Park by the police. He was so badly frightened that after a few words of explanation, in which he said he did not mean to teach violence, he hurriedly left the platform and made his escape in the crowd.

Mowbray started in by abusing the police and the newspapers. Inspector Schaack bore this without interference, but when the speaker began berating the stars and stripes, and hoping for the glorious dawn when the red emblem would be raised triumphantly aloft, the big police captain placed his hand on Mowbray's shoulder and quietly remarked: "You have got to stop that kind of talk," and that settled it.

There was a howl from the crowd at the interruption, and Richard Brannschweig, a loud mouthed radical, who can scarcely speak a word of English, mounted the platform and attempted to shove Captain Schuetzler to one side. He was seized by two detectives.

Mrs. Lucy Parsons was present and after Mowbray's experience, remarked: "It doesn't surprise me any. Liberty is dead in Chicago. Any one can see that," to which the police replied: "Anarchy is dead in Chicago for all time."

SHOWN OF BEHIND.

A Young Girl the Victim of a Daring Thief While She Slept.

NELSON, N.E., Sept. 22.--This city has been the scene of one of the most peculiar crimes in the history of the state and there is no clue as to the identity of the perpetrator.

The entire family of W. O. Brown have been worn out at watching the bedside of a sick child, and when opportunity offered slept more soundly than usual. When Miss Jennie Brown, a girl just budding into womanhood, awoke, she discovered that during the night she had been short of all her principal charms by someone who had come in through the window during the night. When she went to sleep the night before she was possessed of a beautiful head of hair, which was the envy of all the women in town. One-half was gone, the thief evidently being afraid to disturb her sufficiently to procure the portion from the side of her head which lay on the pillow. The hair on the exposed side of her head was cut off close to the scalp and the thief had taken his flight without waking any one in the house.

FIVE DROWNED.

Bathers Lose Their Lives in Lake Michigan--Names of the Victims.

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.--Five persons were drowned while bathing in Lake Michigan to-day. Three young men lost their lives while in the water at the foot of Lawrence avenue, and two boys were drowned off Barry avenue. The drowned are:

Robert Becker, nineteen years old, body recovered and taken to an undertaking establishment.
George Engel, 11 years old.
Oscar Huber, 21 years old.
William Elliott, 11 years old.
Otto Schweiger, 23 years old.
Huber and Schweiger went out in a boat with three other young men. All went in bathing and before any one had noticed it the boat had drifted away from them. The three who were drowned were unable to swim the distance to the boat.

AWFUL LAND SLIDE.

A Family of Five Persons Perish at St. Luc, Canada.

QUEBEC, Sept. 22.--A report comes from St. Luc, Champlain county, of a disastrous land slide on the Champlain river, Saturday night. Zephirin Normandin's house was carried away and five members of the family were buried in the debris. Three children escaped through windows, one of whom has since become insane as the result of the calamity.

After great difficulty the residents of the vicinity succeeded in digging out the five dead bodies. Further destruction is almost certain, as the river is blocked with the detached earth, and the river bank is being inundated at other points.

Court Held on Sunday.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 22.--A special to the Courier Journal from Birmingham, Ala., says: For the second time in the history of this county criminal court was held on Sunday. The jury in the case of Van Parvin, charged with the murder of James Dorman, which had been out since last, reported this evening. Judge Green was sent for and court convened just as the church bells were ringing for service. The jury found Parvin guilty of murder and he was sentenced to six and a half years in the penitentiary.

Big Lumber Yards Burned.

FORD DU LAC, Wis., Sept. 22.--The lumber yards and saw mills of Moore and Galloway, and the iron blast furnace of the Wisconsin furnace company were destroyed by fire this afternoon, with total loss of $255,083. The lumber yards contained ten million feet of lumber, at $175,000. The sawmill cost $125,000, and on the sawmill is $15,000. The iron furnace valued at $125,000 was unharmed.

Secretary Carlisle.

MANTON, Mass., Sept. 22.--Secretary Carlisle arrived here early this morning. In company with Mr. Thurber, he went to Buzzard's Bay and called on President Cleveland this afternoon. He will probably return to Washington to-morrow morning.

Lost Vessel's Identity.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 22.--It is now generally conceded that the unknown four masted steelskip, with which the British ship Prince Oscar collided July 13 last in latitude 33° south, longitude 28° 30' west, sinking her with all hands, was the Lord Downshire of Belfast.

THE TIGER'S DEMAND.

The Tammany Delegates May Make Music at Syracuse.

THEIR SHARE OF THE STATE TICKET

Must be a Place Which Has Patronage to Dispense--Not Satisfied With a Judgeship in Which There Are No Spoils--The Big Democratic Leagues Slow in Gathering at the State Convention, and the Hotels Almost Empty--State Democracy Wants a Concession Which May Not Be Granted.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 22.--Where one week ago to-day the Republicans at Saratoga had practically settled all the details of their convention with the single exception of the excise plank, here in this city, forty-eight hours prior to the meeting of the Democratic convention, no details have been settled and those few delegates who have arrived are absolutely at sea as to what will be the ticket and what the platform. There does not seem to be any anxiety in the matter, except over two points--that of the disposition of the excise matter and the settlement of disputes between the factions.

Even in the latter, the anxiety seems to relate to New York City alone and the contests for minor counties are merely looked upon as temporary matters which will be settled prior to the meeting of the convention. Perhaps the most curious feature of this coming Democratic convention is the fact that none of the leaders have arrived in this city. Headquarters which were engaged weeks ago are unoccupied and even the rooms engaged by the smaller fish that bob and float about the leaders are still empty.

STATSMEN LOCATED.

Senator Hill is supposed to be in Albany. Senator Murphy, Richard Croker and William F. Sheehan are in Saratoga. William R. Grace, Charles S. Fairchild and E. Ellory Anderson are still in New York. None of the Kings county men are here and the Erie county people who have harmonized their differences, and have elected a mixed delegation, will probably not be here until to-morrow afternoon. The only band heard on the street to-day was that of the salvation army; the hotel corridors containing only the newspaper men and the general population.

To-morrow afternoon, Tammany 500 strong will arrive, and with the State Democracy people, 250 in number, upon their heels, there is likely to be music. First of all in the work to be accomplished prior to the opening of the convention is settling the differences between the factions of the party from those counties who have elected two sets of delegates. There are small contests in Wayne and Oswego counties, which it is possible may be settled by threats rather than moral suasion.

It is readily agreed, so far as the Kings contest goes, that the arrangement entered into by the arbitration committee will be agreed to by both factions. This representation gives to the regular organization two-thirds of a vote apiece and to the contestants known as the Shepherds, one-third of a vote. This seems to be satisfactory upon the ground that the third of a vote given to the Shepherds men, fully represents their strength in Kings county.

TAMMANY WILL NOT YIELD.

The general sentiment among the leaders, and even among the rank and file, is that the New York contest should be settled in the same manner. But Tammany representatives here are loud in their assertions that the vote controlled by the state Democracy in New York by no means entitled them to a one-third representation, and that if they were given a one-fourth representation, they would have even then, more than their quota. There is also a sentiment among some of the Tammany men that the state Democracy should not be granted any concessions whatever; not that it would be particularly wise to antagonize them--but that it would be a confession of weakness on the part of the machine organization that he would discredit to Tammany and the state machine alike. So far as can be learned to-night the state Democracy will to-morrow night meet the Tammanites and demand a representation of one-half. The Tammany leaders will raise this proposition and the matter will be referred to the state committee's committee on arbitration. Mr. Hinchley's committee will make the political offer of a representation of one-third, which is in the nature of a compromise.

If there is a slate of candidates in existence, it is in some one's pocket and is likely to be snatched. The matter of candidates will have some effect upon the contests, for if the leaders of the state Democracy find that any slate is distinctly against their faction, they will insist upon a large representation, while if they feel that they are properly treated in this matter they will agree to concessions.

A PROBABLE TICKET.

From the list of candidates the following may be picked out to-night as the most likely to compose the ticket:

For secretary of state, General Horatio C. King, of Kings.
Attorney general, Daniel C. Griffin, of Jefferson.
Comptroller, Augustus Scheu, of Erie.
State engineer, George Clinton Ward, of Oneida.
State treasurer, D. L. Dow, of Schoharie.

Judges of the court of appeals, Edward B. Rapallo, of New York.

The only objection to this slate that could be urged is that New York City does not get the places upon the ticket that she has asked for. Her candidates so far as Theodore W. Meyers for comptroller, John A. Mason for state treasurer, Judge Rapallo for the court of appeals.

From a purely liturgical standpoint the position accorded them on the above slate, that of judges of the court of appeals, is the best of the lot, but it is devoid of political influence, and the delegates from New York would rather land other candidate for comptroller or state treasurer.

It is the general consensus of opinion here to-night that a majority of the delegates to the convention will favor a local option clause in the platform as to Sunday opening of saloons.

THE EXCISE QUESTION.

Senator Charles Guy said to-night that some of the Tammany people had a new proposition to present regarding the excise question. He said: "Under the new construction the cities of the state are divided into three classes, which the constitutional convention designed should be governed by different charters and might have special state laws to govern them. The demand for a change in the excise laws, so far as Sunday is concerned, comes entirely from cities of the first class, three in number, New York, Brooklyn and Buffalo. It is believed that if a local option plank is inserted in the platform it should call upon the legislature to pass laws allowing the question of local option to be voted upon by people living in cities of the first class. If there is any demand later on by cities of the second and third class, that can be attended to later, but the demand now is entirely from cities of the first class, and so the platform should attend to their wants only. People of the other cities are evidently dissatisfied with the enforcement of the present laws."

Croker Will Not Attend.

SARATOGA, Sept. 22.--Richard Croker, of New York City, spent the day at Senator Murphy's. The latter, to-night, is suffering from neuralgia, but should be sufficiently recovered to-morrow he will start for Syracuse in the morning. Ex-Lieutenant Governor Sheehan will also go there. Mr. Croker, when seen to-day, reiterated that he is out of politics, and that he will not attend the Syracuse convention.

A TERRIBLE AFFAIR.

A Woman's Dreadful Battle With a Mad Dog Near Huntington.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Sept. 22.--Mrs. Davo Keyser, who lives ten miles south of this city, where so many dogs have been attacked with hydrophobia, attempted to drive a strange canine from her premises yesterday morning when the brute lunged at her, seized her right breast between its jaws and tore the flesh in a horrible manner. The animal was frothing at the mouth and was biting Mrs. Keyser in the arms when she grabbed its jaws and held them apart until the arrival of some men who heard her screams. She is in a serious condition from the wounds.

TWO TRAGEDIES

Are Furnished by Wood County in One Single Day.

A WEALTHY FARMER'S DIRK KNIFE

Used With Deadly Effect--Thomas P. Harness Stabs a Negro Who Interfered in a Quarrel--Ho Escapes on Horseback--A Terrible Murder at a Dance at Lubec--The Result of a Feud Between Two Families--Sad Ending of a Night of Festivity Among Young Folks.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Sept. 22.--Yesterday evening at 8 o'clock, at Waverly, in the upper end of the county, Tom P. Harness, a prominent and wealthy farmer, stabbed Mark Perry, a negro twenty years old, in the abdomen, inflicting fatal injuries, from which he died within a half hour.

The trouble started when Harness' buggy came into collision with a wagon driven by Henry Thomas, colored. A wheel on Harness' buggy was demolished and he began to abuse Thomas. At this juncture Perry interfered and told Thomas not to allow persons to run over him in that manner.

This angered Harness and he made for Perry, drawing out a long dirk knife. Perry thereupon grabbed a whip, with the stock of which he struck Harness over the head several times. Harness then made a lunge at Perry, burying the knife deep in the abdominal chambers and severed the liver.

HARNESSES ESCAPES.

After the trouble Harness jumped upon his horse and rode away. He has been at large ever since. The trouble in the main grew out of the feud of long standing between Harness and his brother-in-law, Capt. C. P. Ross. Perry was in the employ of the latter and had been so for over one year. He was a single man and came to Waverly one year ago. Perry naturally took up his employer's side of the trouble, with the result that his life was prematurely ended. The crime has created great excitement everywhere in this county. At the inquest in the morning the evidence will make the strongest kind of a case against Harness if he is caught, and he surely will be.

ANOTHER MURDER.

At a dance last night two miles back of Lubec, this county, Henry Caveny shot Albert E. Burd through the heart, killing him instantly. Silas Caveny also used his gun, shooting into the crowd, but doing no damage. It was a fight between the Burd boys and the Cavenys.

The Cavenys disappeared after the trouble, but will give themselves up to-night. The dead man was a widower and middle aged. All concerned are farmers. It was a mixed up affair and the facts about it are meagre, owing to the fact that it occurred in an out of the way place.

BLOODY BRIDLES WAITE

Delivers a Mock Sermon Against "the Money Power" at Canton.

CANTON, O., Sept. 22.--A resolution was introduced in the Methodist conference here censuring the Populists for engaging ex-Gov. Waite, of Colorado, to deliver a political speech here to-day. The ex-governor appeared, but he postponed his political speech until to-morrow night. Instead he delivered a mock sermon in which he condemned the money power and criticized the ministers. Among other things he said: "Christ drove the money changes out of the synagogue; did any one hear of a Methodist preacher driving money sharks out of his fold?"

He declared that the money power hung about the neck of the church as a millstone.

TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

M. E. Stinson Kills His Sweetheart and Then Commits Suicide.

OSKAHOA, IOWA, Sept. 22.--M. E. Stinson, of St. Louis, formerly agent for the Rock Island railroad at Fairfield, Iowa, at which point his parents reside, shot and killed Miss Arta Moore, of Panora, at an early hour this morning and then committed suicide. The girl has for some time past been a student at Iowa college. She came here from Grinnell Friday night and was met by Stinson. The couple took rooms at the Asher House, where the tragedy occurred. The reason for killing is unknown. Stinson simply left a note to his father to take care of his remains, making no explanation.

For Western Pennsylvania, fair in the morning, with warm south winds, probably thunder storms during the evening or night; much cooler by Tuesday morning;
